Mr. Jacksod.

Will you please give the size of canvas on which "Charlotte Corday" is painted?
I want the figure the right proportion. I will not make a copy of the same size as it is forbidden. In the summer vacation I want to paint it. I will make the difference in the outside edge of some of the background. I can draw it from a small photograph. Resp. (Miss) L. C. Smith

Dear Sir:

I dispatched an agent, duly empowered, to the Residence of Mrs. Mary H. Caton (my sister-) and Mr. and Mrs Edwin Pendleton C, N & St.
1752 "N" Street, north-West, yesterday morning, to take possession of the Portrait of General Sir Ralph Abercrombie and deliver it to you for the Corcoran Art Gallery; but, regret to say, that they had, in some way, or other, got wind of my intentions and had sent off the Portrait to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Berret in Newyork City, doubtless, conscious of my ownership, yet unwilling that it should be delivered up to me. This, of course, ends the matter until

I can proceed to New York and obtain possession of the portrait.

I am Sir,

Respectfully Yours.

used, because they would have required the printing of another form, and the ~~drawing~~ pictures they represented were not of much importance.

Your Committee will be agreeably disappointed on seeing Pearce's St. John. The subject is generally treated in a repulsive manner; but Pearce has, I think managed to avoid the repulsiveness without sacrificing strength.

The picture is a very striking one at first sight; but it does not weaken with acquaintance. The more I see it, the more I am impressed with its unusual merit.

I will write to Mr. Pearce at once, to know whether, I may offer it to you for Exhibition.

Have you any printed announcement of the Exhibition? If so please send me one. I like to collect such things.

Yours truly Jno. Sartain

Dear Sir,

Yours of 3d received. You did not put me to any trouble in the matter of "Analytical Researches on the Cost of Exhibition Catalogues, from original bills and other documents", as the work might be entitled if published in book form. The investigation was necessary for my own use; and I mentioned it to you only by way of explaining why I was so long in answering your inquiries, which could not well be answered until after it was completed.

The cost of the Illustrated Catalogue (edition of 2000)
was $775.23

Of this amount, $365.33 was for charges that do not vary with the number of copies printed, such as plates, composition, etc. — The remainder ($409.90) was for paper, pressework, and other charges which vary proportionately with the edition.

The illustrated part of this edition cost (including cover) cost 649.81
Text 125.42
775.23

But if there had been no other edition, the text portion would have cost $186.79

The edition of 3000, without illustrations, cost $202.00; but, if there had been no other edition printed, it would have cost $246.79 divided as follows

Fixed charges 113.29
Charges varying with the number of Copies 133.50

Dear Mr. Sc & Coe

I send by my Father two original paintings the smaller in a very unfinished state - which I would like to substitute for the small copy I left with you to come before the Gentlemen of the Committee. I would like to have you hand either or both of the original Pictures to them as you may think best - that is I would like the portrait of the little dog to go before them and the still life also if you

Very respectfully yours
Alonzo S Babcock
1025 – 17th St.

The flower piece is in so unfinished a state I wish you would show it or not as you & Mr Andrews think best: but if it is shown please mark it unfinished think advisable.

I have heard from Mr. Andrews that it is necessary to submit an original picture, and my mistake was in supposing it was necessary to submit a copy so I brought the only copy I had painted on canvas: it was painted three years ago and never pleased me although Mr Brown from whose sketch it was colored said it was a "perfect copy" it is now much defaced by bad treatment. If you will be so kind as to set it one side and not show it to the Committee I will be much obliged and will call for it very soon.
